Summary of reasons for decision:

The publication is a selfie video that explicitly depicts a partially nude young girl performing sexual acts on herself. The video is likely to be titillating to viewers with a prurient interest in young girls. The availability of such material encourages and reinforces this interest. The video encourages viewers to regard young girls as appropriate subjects for adult sexual fantasy and desire and has the potential to be used to groom others for exploitation by normalising the conduct. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 be deemed to be objectionable.
